

I well remember <sup>E.</sup> Edna Loomis telling that her grandfather's home was a place of refuge for those who came north by means of the underground railroad.

[Written by Edith A. Gardner and read by her at the Griswold Reunion in 1979 at the Moosic Grange Hall, Clinton Township, Wayne County, PA.]